MATARIKI WEEKEND SCHOOL

Kaikoura
 14 – 16 July 2023

Tutors: Damon and Gaye Collin, Su Marshall

Damon started dancing as a fifteen-year old and is convinced that his fitness and flexibility owes much to that early involvement. His parents and his brother all danced, and he still meets up with his brother on the dance floor from time to time. Damon has taught at day schools, weekend schools, a Winter School in Australia, and Summer Schools in New Zealand. Damon and his wife, Gaye, have extended their knowledge and appreciation of the "family" of Scottish Country Dancers in recent years by dancing in England, Scotland, France and Germany.

Gaye's dancing profile began with Irish dancing at the age of six. She became a Teacher and Adjudicator in her early twenties and ran her own Irish dancing school for twenty years. Since gaining her certificate in SCDing in 2011 she has taught at a NZ Summer School, many classes in NZ & some in Australia. Gaye's great passion is devising dances. She has published 3 books of dances and is working on 2 more.

Su Marshall is a dancer at heart and loves to help others share the joy of dancing, which makes her a natural teacher. She has been dancing for over 50 years – she's given almost every type of dancing a go at some point – and is currently a dancer and teacher at the Cauty Caledonian Society SCDC and Hoon Hay SCDC. She's been teaching dancing (of all types) on and off for nearly 30 years and has a reputation for making it fun and easy. Her patience is legendary and her humour is broad. She brings an infectious energy to everything she does.
